GENERAL DENIAL

300. Bain denies all allegations contained in the Complaint (including headings and captions) not specifically admitted in this Answer.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiffs' jury demand is a self-operative statement to which no response is required. Bain reserves its rights as to triability of any claim or counterclaim in this case.

AFFIRMATIVE AND OTHER DEFENSES

1. Insofar as the bulk of the conduct referenced in the Complaint occurred outside the applicable statute of limitations and/or statute of repose period, more than four years prior to Plaintiffs filing their action, Plaintiffs' claims for damages are barred, in whole or in part, by the statute of limitations and/or statute of repose.

2. Insofar as the bulk of the conduct referenced in the Complaint occurred more than four years prior to Plaintiffs filing their action (or more than such other period as may be deemed relevant), Plaintiffs' claims for injunctive relief are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of laches.

3. Plaintiffs' claims may not be maintained as a class action. In addition to not satisfying the requirements of Rule 23, under the laws of many states, claims under the state antitrust and consumer protection statutes may not be brought as a class action. For example, Ark. Code § 4-88-113, Mont. Code Ann. § 30-14-133, and Tenn. Code Ann. § 47-18-109(g) prohibit class actions. Kan. Stat. Ann. § 50-634 prohibits private class actions for damages or civil penalties, except under limited circumstances. Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17203 places restrictions on persons who can serve as class representative and the type of relief that can be recovered. See also Brown v. Allstate Ins. Co., 17 F. Supp. 2d 1134, 1140 (S.D. Cal. 1998). To the extent any of Plaintiffs' state law claims may not be brought as a class action or as a class action for damages, Plaintiffs lack standing to pursue such claims individually, lack standing to pursue such claims on behalf of a class, and cannot state a plausible claim for relief.

4. Plaintiffs lack standing to pursue claims related to camps.

5. Plaintiffs allege that they have been damaged by conduct known to them and dating as far back as 2003. Yet Plaintiffs chose to continue patronizing Varsity's cheerleading competitions, chose to continue purchasing apparel from Varsity, and otherwise failed to take steps to avoid or lessen their alleged damages. Plaintiffs' claims are therefore barred, in whole or in part, by their failure to mitigate damages, waiver, estoppel, and/or by the voluntary payment doctrine.

6. Plaintiffs have failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, including as stated in the motions to dismiss of the various Defendants, which were recently granted in part by the Court. This includes, but is not limited to, failure to state a claim under the Tennessee Trade Practices Act and failure to state a claim under the Tennessee Trade Practices Act.

7. Plaintiffs bring claims under numerous state antitrust and consumer protection statutes. Many states require procedural requirements to be satisfied before a plaintiff may file a lawsuit on such claim. For example, Ariz. Rev. Stat. § 44-1415, Nev. Rev. Stat. § 598A.210, Utah Code Ann. § 76-10-3109, Cal. Bus. Prof. Code § 17209, and Or. Rev. Stat. § 646.638(2), require notice and/or service on the state attorney general simultaneously with the filing of the complaint. In the District of Columbia, any lawsuit must be brought in the Superior Court of the District Court of Columbia. D.C. Code § 28-3905(k)(5). In Maine and Massachusetts, a plaintiff must provide a defendant a written demand at least 30 days prior to the filing of an action for damages. Me. Stat. tit. 5 § 213; Mass. Gen. Laws ch. 93A § 9. To the extent any of Plaintiffs failed to satisfy any state procedural prerequisites before filing this action, Plaintiffs lack standing to pursue such state law claims and fail to state a claim for relief.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

Bain currently has insufficient knowledge or information upon which to form a belief as to any other potential affirmative defenses that may be available to it, and expressly reserves the right to amend or supplement this Answer and affirmative defenses, as well as to assert any and all additional or alternative defenses under any applicable law or regulations, in the event that discovery indicates that such defenses are available. Assertion by Bain of any affirmative defense(s) or any other defense(s) shall not be deemed a concession that Bain bears the burden of proof with respect to any of them. Bain reserves its right to assert counterclaims as may be appropriate.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Bain denies that Plaintiffs are entitled to any relief and respectfully requests a judgment against Plaintiffs as follows:

- A. That Plaintiffs take nothing by their Complaint in this action;
- B. That the Court enter judgment against Plaintiffs and in favor of Bain, and that the Complaint in this action be dismissed with prejudice as to Bain;
- C. That the Court award Bain any and all other relief to which it may be entitled or which the Court deems just and proper.
